EVINSTON

Discover the history of Evinston. Use your cell phone to learn all about the town's beginning in the 1880s, when Captain William Drayton Evins granted a right-of-way for the Florida Southern railroad to go through his property. Hear about the churches, agriculture, railroad depot and what the old country store and post office, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, were like in the 1930s. Evinston Wood & Swink Post Office (since 1882) is on the National Register of Historic Places. The annual migration of Sandhill Cranes is also a great sight in Evinston.

To visit: Travel east on University Avenue to US-441. Make right on US 441. Approximately 12 miles, make left at SE 185 Avenue. Follow map for tour stops.
